THE LESSONS OF AYOTZINAPA: A CONVERSATION WITH CARLOS MARTÍN BERISTAIN

International investigators spent nearly a decade investigating the disappearance of 43 students from Ayotzinapa, Mexico, presenting their final report in July 2023. Hear from Carlos Beristain, a member of the investigating commission, on the complicity and cover-up of the Mexican state, as well as how relatives and human rights activists continue to press for truth and justice in a case that shocked Mexico and the world.
