The 5th Annual Trestler Festival features recitals, master classes, and a solo piano competition centered around Latin American piano music presented by internationally renowned guest artists and University of Arizona students.

Two distinguished pianists will share their artistry and expertise with our community during two guest artist residencies in the Fall and Spring semesters: Ms. Daniela Salinas (Superior Conservatory of Music of Buenos Aires) and Dr. Oscar Macchioni (University of North Texas).

The Lois Trestler Competition is a core event of the festival. This event features UA School of Music piano students competing for over $4,000 in scholarship awards, including an award for Best Performance of Latin American Work and the Audience Prize.
