HOURGLASS ENFORCEMENT: PANAMA'S CONTROLLED FLOW MIGRATION POLICY IN THE DARIEN GAP

*with Caitlyn Yates, PhD Candidate Department of Anthropology
University of British Columbia*

Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork conducted in government-run migrant camps in Panama's Darien province, this talk explores the human and material effects of Panama's immigration enforcement policy known as "controlled flow" on the growing number of migrants making the trek through the so-called Darien Gap.
