The fourth annual Trestler Festival for Latin American Piano Music will highlight music from across Latin America, with a particular focus this year on the music of Argentina, Brazil, Peru, and the United States. Argentinian pianist Alejandro Cremaschi will present a lecture-recital on Ginastera's Doce Preludios Americanos, and Peruvian pianist Priscila Navarro will present a solo recital including works by Tania León, Jimmy Lopez, and others. Both Dr. Cremaschi and Dr. Navarro will work with UArizona piano students in a public master class.
