K-12 EDUCATOR
WORKSHOPS

CORRIDOS IN THE CLASSROOM

ABOUT: You're invited to an evening of free professional development for all K-12 educators: in-service and pre-service teachers, educational aides, administrators, and librarians.

Corridos are traditional Mexican narrative ballads that blend music and storytelling to share tales of history, culture, and life experiences. By incorporating corridos into your teaching, you can create an engaging and culturally relevant learning experience for your students. Join us for an exciting and educational workshop focused on integrating these captivating musical stories into your curriculum!

The evening will feature corrido composers and musicians Celestino Fernández & Guillermo Sáenz. CDs, curriculum materials, and certificates of professional development will be given to participants. Dinner will be provided.

WHERE: The Center for Latin American Studies, Marshall Building, Ste. 280, 845 N. Park Ave. Tucson, AZ

SPONSORS: This workshop is organized by the UArizona Center for Latin American Studies. It is supported by the US Department of Education Title VI grant.
